I would strongly recommend Halcyon shows – a talented acrobatics troupe that recently performed at our Theatre.

The show they performed, Aureum was received very well by our audience – I'm still getting letters and the show was over a month ago.

The show is professionally produced, the cast are all incredibly athletic, graceful, dramatic and just really, really talented.

The costuming, set and lighting designs were right on, and the assets they provided for marketing were better than most and had an impact on their first trip to our building.

Above that, Omri is incredibly humble and his crew follows his lead, quite easy to work with.

We can't wait until their next show because we'll be booking it again.
